

onshape®

Wednesday, November 5th
4:00 - 5:00 pm

Pratt & Whitney Engineering Building
PWE 180

Have you tried the cloud-native CAD system called ONSHAPE? It is accessible on any web browser, allowing users to access, manage and share their design data securely from anywhere in the world on any web-connected device. ONSHAPE reps will be here on-campus to demo their software and it's use in the Industrial Design world.
